

NMMA SPEAKS ON TRADE

Total Articles: 401 | Total Audience: 82,411,039

» TORONTO STAR «

“ As a result of the Canadian government’s counter-measures on recreational boating goods in response to the United States’ imposition of tariffs on certain steel and aluminum products coming from Canada, buying a boat may no longer be affordable for many.”

- Sara Anghel, Toronto Star, 8/13/19

N The National

“ The dealers are frantic as the lead up to the July 1st weekend. In fact, we’ve been in full gear for the last three weeks trying to figure out how we are going to deal with this.”

- Sara Anghel, CBC National Evening News, 6/28/18

» TORONTO STAR «

“ Upwards of 95 percent of recreational boats sold in Canada are imported from the U.S., and the roughly 1,000 boat dealers in our association are now contemplating cancelling orders of new boats or struggling to find cash flow to pay the new import tax.”

-Sara Anghel, Toronto Star, 7/15/18

THE GLOBE AND MAIL

“ I would love for this to be a great opportunity for Canadian manufacturing, longer term, perhaps, but the fact of the matter is there would be a short supply. The Canadian domestic market could not keep up with the demand. The market relies very heavily on U.S. manufactured boats.”

-Sara Anghel, The Globe and Mail, 6/15/18

CBC news

“ These tariffs will cause irreparable and disastrous damage to the industry, from which it would likely never recover.”

- Sara Anghel, CBC, 6/16/18