

vote yes for the Right to Hunt, Fish and Harvest Wildlife

Protects North Carolina sporting traditions for future generations by protecting the right to hunt, fish, and harvest wildlife in perpetuity

Ensures that hunting and fishing continue to be the preferred means of wildlife management

Codifies the Public Trust Doctrine, a key tenet of the North American Model of Wildlife Conservation

Ensures that conservation is based on sound science

Supports conservation funding system that has generated $1.23 billion for North Carolina

Does not affect the ability of the Wildlife Resources Commission or Division of Marine Fisheries to regulate hunting or fishing (e.g. seasons, bag limits, etc.)

21 states, including every state adjacent to North Carolina, currently have RTHF in their constitution
